

Sustainable Livelihoods

COMMUNITY INFORMATION SESSION

IAAW is pleased to host

Mary Ferguson, B.E.S, M.E.S.

Principal Eko Nomos

Eko Nomos is a Canadian company that promotes innovation and excellence in community-based, social and economic development programs.

Agenda:

- Welcome and introductions
- Overview of the sustainable livelihoods framework
- Understanding the forces that hold people back
- Assets: building blocks for sustainable livelihoods
- Discussion of assets mapping tool and its applications
- Lunch
- Livelihood strategies and stages
- Learning about effective practice in implementing sustainable livelihoods
- Sustainable livelihoods and outcomes documentation
- Evaluation of the day

Cost: $20/person
lunch provided

Who should attend:

Funded by:

United Way of Edmonton

Those working with low-income individuals and families, interested in hearing of a model that focuses on assets.

(See additional information attached)

For more information contact
Sara Singer

INSTITUTE FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF
ABORIGINAL WOMEN

Suite 201, 10812–178 Street
Edmonton, Alberta
T5S 1J3

Phone: 780.479.8195
Toll Free: 1.877.471.2171
Fax: 780.471.2169
Email: iaaw@iaaw.ca
Web: iaaw.ca

Wednesday Feb 24th, 2010

9 to 4 pm

United Way/Alberta Capital Region

Community Room

15132 Stony Plain Road Edmonton, AB

Seats are limited, Call 780-479-8195

